16th December 2015

Dear Parents

Thank you to all our families who were able to attend the Infant Nativity this week. It was a delightful retelling of the story of the first Christmas. Thank you to Mrs Rogers, Mrs Cripps and the whole of the Infant department for working so hard to produce this lovely event.

The government's national schools performance tables are released this week. We are proud to confirm the successful achievements of our children last year. Information is at www.education.gov.uk/schools/performance
