

Attainment and Progress Outcomes St Francis Catholic Primary School 2018- 2019

These are the most current outcomes for the pupils at St Francis. We are pleased that our pupils achieve above and well above national expectations in almost all stages and areas of the curriculum. We are particularly proud of our children’s achievements and progress at the end of key stage two – our children achieve significantly above national outcomes in all areas.

Key Stage Two – Progress

Progress is measured from the end of Key Stage One to the end of Key Stage Two.

As you can see pupils at St Francis significantly outperform pupils nationally.

	School 2019	National	Comparison
Reading	+2.0	0	Significantly above
Writing	+3.1	0	Significantly above
Maths	+3.7	0	Significantly above
Reading and Maths	+2.8	0	Significantly above

Key Stage Two – Scaled Score

A pupil's scaled score is based on their raw test score. The raw score is the total number of marks a pupil scores in their test.

A scaled score of 100 represents attainment at the expected standard.

The average scaled score at St Francis is significantly above national levels in all subjects.
